For Rotterdam School of Management there are two important selection criteria:

- Grades 75%: Your average grade counts the most for the final ranking.
- Motivation 25%: You will answer 3 motivation questions when applying.

THINGS TO CONSIDER

These are the things you should keep in mind when choosing to study Business and Management abroad.

1

What are my interests? Business is a VERY wide degree, with programs catering for all interests. Ensure you look at the modules of where you apply!

2

Is the degree widely recognised? We advise you to review the accreditation of the program you prefer, particularly where applying to business schools rather than widely recognised universities.

3

What about the finances? In general terms, Business adheres to standardized ranges for bachelor's degrees; however, if what you're looking for is to pursue an MBA, we suggest exploring Germany and Norway, since they do not charge a tuition fee.

OUR TOP PICKS - COUNTRY EDITION

As much as there is variety of options, our three top picks countries with high level of satisfaction, career prospects and housing highly-acclaimed business schools.

1

US

The US is certainly a world-leader in providing business education. A US degree is a prestigious achievement that is guaranteed to open up doors for you. Indeed, research has recently found that in the US, business degree holders tend to earn more than bachelor's degree holders across all fields of study.

2

Denmark

Denmark is consistently associated with some of the most known business schools out there - including CBS. A degree from Denmark is highly regarded, with the uncanny advantage of offering its studies for FREE if you are an EU student!

3

Italy

Italy is the EU's third-largest economy, and despite recent setbacks, it has been experiencing strong growth since the beginning of 2022. Sectors like manufacturing, pharmaceutical, and life sciences continue to grow, whilst Italy is also home to more innovative sectors like aerospace and ICT.

OUR TOP PICKS - BUSINESS PROGRAMMES EDITION

Please note that this reflects only our opinion. It should not replace the need for research based on your own preferences.

1

World Bachelor in Business - Bocconi University

In a select class of about 50 participants coming from all over the world, you will study at a different location and university each year, spanning three continents: the first year is in Los Angeles, the second in Hong Kong, the third in Milan and the fourth at your choice of one of these schools. The curriculum is rigorous and provides a solid foundation in business and economics.

2

International Business - Copenhagen Business School

CBS is highly ranked in prestigious business university rankings. The BSc IB gives you a broad understanding of business economics and strategy in a global context, such as how companies strategically handle the problems that arise when they operate in a foreign market. CBS encourages a competitive yet collaborative environment where students network and develop.

3

Business Analytics - University of Pennsylvania

Students choosing the Business Analytics concentration are ideally suited for the growing set of careers broadly defined under the header of "data science" with responsibilities for managing and analyzing data. In addition, the concentration provides an excellent complement to students who choose to focus on one of the functional areas of business (e.g., accounting, finance, marketing, operations).

OUR TOP PICKS - RELATED PROGRAMMES EDITION

Here are some specific program recommendations related to the field and with very interesting approaches. Please note that this reflects only our opinion. It should not replace the need for research based on your own preferences.

1

International Economics and Management - Bocconi University

You will learn to understand and analyze the dynamics of globalization of cultures and operations and relationships among countries at the European and extra-European levels. Content is tailored to give you solid preparation in the field of international economics and management and a distinctive international perspective.

2

International Shipping and Trade - Copenhagen Business School

The BSc Shipping at CBS is unique, focusing exclusively on the shipping industry. It offers specialized insight into the operations, strategies, and management of shipping companies, emphasizing a global and dynamic industry context, unlike other programs that cover general business knowledge.

3

Management - London School of Economics

The curriculum focuses on critical thinking and problem solving, using logic and analysis. Students are encouraged to consider theory and evidence: "What data might support this claim?", "How can we evaluate whether the data do support this claim?", "What are the unstated assumptions behind this statement?" so that graduating students have good business sense alongside strong theoretical understanding.

NO.1 TIP

Given the volume of applications, competitive applicants are those with previous experience or related extracurriculars. This is a time to do volunteering, internships, work experience, school projects and any other activity reflecting the very values sought in BA degrees.

PERSONAL STATEMENT WARNING

Whether talking about a recent news story, how you meet targets in your weekend job, or simply why you want to study business at uni, that spark of genuine motivation and enthusiasm will get you noticed. That's what business admissions tutors look for.

BUSINESS PERSONAL STATEMENT (IN A NUTSHELL)

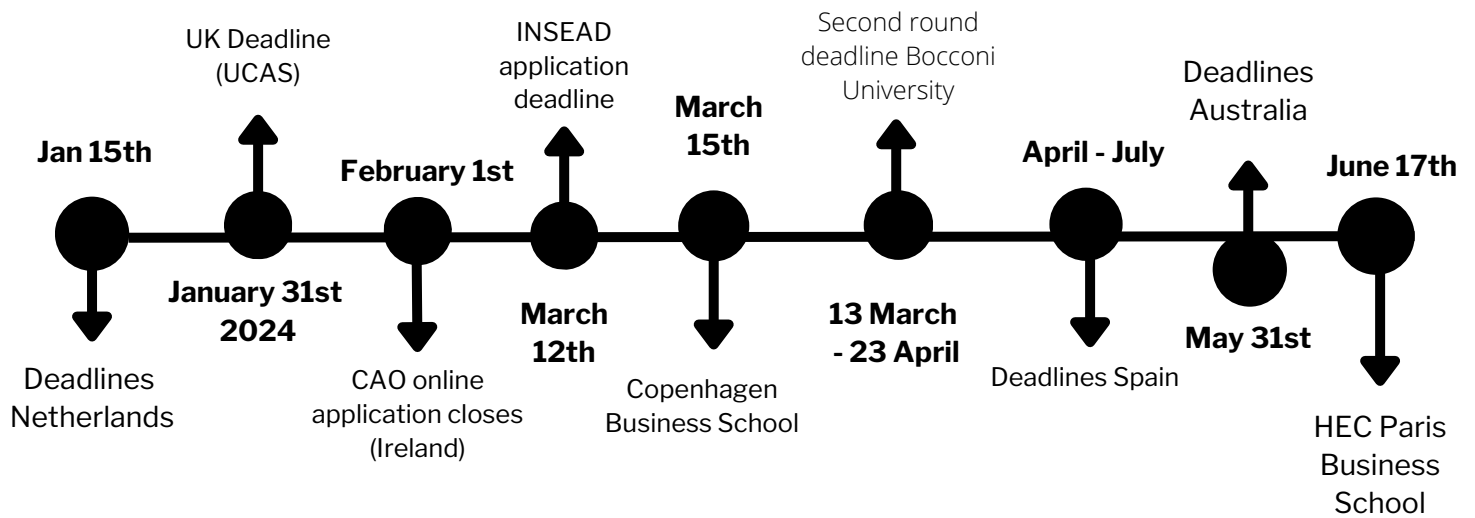

Business admissions tutors are looking for evidence of:

- an independent learner.
- a thinker and doer.
- an innovator or potential entrepreneur.
- a good communicator who likes giving presentations.
- an interest in what's happening out there in the business world.

DEADLINE TIMELINE

We have mapped out some of the most important deadlines to keep in mind for many of the universities mentioned in this guide. Please note these dates are indicative only and more steps may be required to complete the application procedure.
